

COHN REZNICK

Academic Scholarship in honor of
SGT Steven J. DeLuzio

March 4, 2013

Dear GHS Senior:

SGT Steven DeLuzio was a member of the GHS class of 2003. Steven had a strong love of God, family, and country which drew him to military service in 2005. His post-secondary education was interrupted in 2006 by a 6-month tour of duty in Iraq. Upon his return, Steven resumed his college studies and ultimately graduated from The University of Hartford, Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration (Accounting). His life was just beginning with the promise of a strong secure future as an accountant at CohnReznick in Glastonbury, CT.

In 2009, SGT DeLuzio was once again called to duty and was sent to Afghanistan. He was a spiritual leader as well as a military leader and admired by the soldiers under his command as well as his friends and family alike. He always tried his best and made the ultimate sacrifice for this country on August 22, 2010.

We would be pleased to consider applications from Glastonbury High School graduating seniors who are planning to major in Accounting. This CohnReznick sponsored $5,000 college scholarship will be awarded based on an official high school transcript, a teacher's recommendation, and the student's personal character.

If you are interested, please complete the enclosed scholarship application along with the required essay. Please obtain TWO recommendations, one from a teacher and another from a personal reference such as a coach or employer. In addition, please request an official transcript from your high school and be sure that this information is returned to us at the address listed below or emailed to scott.deluzio@gmail.com by the scholarship deadline of March 22nd.

Warmest regards,

Mark C. DeLuzio
